THE FOOTHILLS CHURCH STORY

Foothills is a non-denominational church led by Pastor Kevin Robison. Foothills began in 1998 as a small Bible study group with 17 people in the founding pastor's home with a mission to help people find and follow Jesus. Their prayer was, "Lord send us the lost and hurting. Send us the ones that no one else wants." God has answered that prayer since then with thousands of lives transformed by the power of Jesus and over 2,500 baptisms. Foothills is more than a building or a location, it's a family where everyone belongs.

The founding pastors, Pastor Greg, and Liz, have three grown children and six grandchildren. They have had the privilege of serving Foothills Church for 25 years. In April of 2023, Greg officially handed the baton of leadership to Pastor Kevin Robison but still serves in an advisory role and as a part of the teaching team.

Pastor Kevin and his wife Katie met in a small group at Foothills in 2011. Today, they are happily married with two daughters, Hayley and Anna, and one son, Caleb. Kevin has served in various roles at Foothills over the years before becoming the lead pastor and also served at a church in his hometown, Franklin, TN. They have made it their mission to help people find and follow Jesus and are thrilled to continue that mission through Foothills, in the upstate, and beyond!
